Overview

Project: Extension – Stovner Moske

Project ID: P0005

Organisation: Islamic Centre og Aktivitetshus, Oslo, Norway

Aim: This masjid is situated in a small town in Oslo called Stovner. For numerous years now, it has been at the forefront of serving the religious needs of the local community. Going beyond the simple bounds of a place of 5 times worship, it has dedicated time and effort to accommodate community cohesion, youth programmes for Muslims and non Muslims alike, as well as numerous classes for Quran recitation, translation as well as the preservation of native languages such as Urdu, Somali, and Arabic.

Due to it's popularity through word of mouth and the welcoming nature of those in charge, the mosque has seen it's congregation grow rapidly in the last few years, as well as a contribution by the regular number of non Muslims who revert at the institute. The two floors are regularly packed to its capacity, with hundreds of people flocking to Friday and Eid prayers.

They are looking to expand their building to accommodate another 500 people. The project will cost an estimated £500,000.

Sadqa E Jariyah

The potential for continuous reward in this project is immense, because it involves the extension of a masjid building which caters to not only Muslims, but non Muslims as well. But to mention a few, you will get reward for;

- every person praying Salah in the masjid [at least 5 times a day].,
- children learning Quran,
- teachers teaching Quran,
- Jumu'ah, Taraweeh, Khutbah, beyaans, nafl prayers,
- People reverting to Islam through someone who was inspired by something they learnt at the masjid,
- Every good deed any new Muslim from the masjid will do.
- Youths who will leave a scene of crime and addiction to harmful things to turn their attention towards the deen being preached in the masjid.
